

H₂O Cycle Rap dance notes

You will see the movements we have developed in the video.
If you choose to use these ideas here are some clarifications:

As a rap this is very rhythmic

The word hydrogen has 3 syllables:

The hydrogen movement is a clap, then pat right hand to right thigh and then left hand to left thigh – these are the 3 beats. Repeat (there are 2x hydrogen)

Oxygen- 3 claps for each syllable

Water Water Water – a flowing movement like water...

Precipitation – Water flowing down like rain.

Accumulation – arms creating a container like a lake.

Evaporation – vapor rising up into the sky. arms rising up fingers open.

Condensation – arms up, hands start open and then quickly close to show vapor coming into form.
